

Dear Senators (both male and female),

God morning I am still in the Courts. I am self representing. Here is the way to clear the queues:

1. If more than $ 2 million, and married for more than 15 years, then half each. After legal fees its the same thing anyway . Exclude things like big gifts, trusts, farms, the seriously ill, compo - and leave that to the judges. No judges plucking numbers out of thin air but a clear law.

2. All the judges know who the sleazy lawyers are. There are lots of them. So no more applications in a case by the lawyers who are in Court every day. The Registry's to produce a list of the top 10 filers per court. then just cap them out for 24 months. The Law Society to produce a list of all lawyers with more than 5 complaints. Stop them until cleared by some lawyer of real integrity like Julie Bishop or Julia Banks. They are tough women. It could also be a man if needed with them. Maybe Turnbull ? Anyway- some lawyer all Australians trust, not just the old boys association.

3. Settlement offers every 6 weeks in writing. If your husbands lawyer doesn't take it then she pays the court costs.

We have been 2 years in the courts. A young female lawyer on the other side was actually nice - ish and told me my husband will settle when we get a trial date. They are just stringing it out. So give him a trial date.

Love to you all.
