

AFP INFORMATION REQUEST FORM

Requesting Agency: PJCLE

Request:

Witness	Question	Hansard reference
Mr Tony Alderman, Australian Federal Police	Senator LEYONHJELM: Am I right in assuming that the offence on which you would base that would be evading excise, if you like—bringing them in and not paying excise? Would that be right?  Mr Alderman: Not necessarily. As I think I was saying, there is an offence for the importation under 233BABAD, the smuggling	Page 44 offence, bringing in illicit goods.  Senator LEYONHJELM: Bringing in illicit goods?  Mr Alderman: Yes. I can provide you on notice, perhaps, with a list of some of the offences that we have actually looked at and where we have restrained in these matters. I can provide that to you on notice.  Senator LEYONHJELM: If you would, yes, that would be good

Comment [AFP1]: See proposed amendment to Hansard.

AFP Response:

With respect to Illicit Tobacco investigations, proceeds have been restrained and / or forfeited under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 in relation to offences including:

- Dealing with property reasonably suspected of being proceeds of crime etc., contrary to section 400.9(1) of the Criminal Code Act 1995;
- Causing a loss to the Commonwealth, contrary to section 135.1(3) of the Criminal Code Act 1995, and
- Facilitating the importation of tobacco products with the intention of defrauding the revenue, contrary to section 233BABAD(1) of the Customs Act 1901.