HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES STANDING COMMITTEE ON ECONOMICS
Public hearings: Implications of removing refundable franking credits

Chair: Mr Tim Wilson MP
Issued: 23 January 2019

Merimbula and Sydney public hearings announced for franking credits inquiry

The House of Representatives Standing Committee on Economics will hold public hearings in Merimbula, Chatswood and Bondi Junction, New South Wales, for its inquiry into the implications of removing refundable franking credits.

The Chair of the committee, Mr Tim Wilson MP, said 'the committee is examining how the removal of refundable franking credits would affect investors, in particular older Australians who have planned for their retirement under the existing rules and whose financial security could be compromised.'

Mr Wilson said 'the committee has received well over 1000 submissions, including many from retirees who are concerned they will be forced on to the aged pension if the ability to claim a refund on their franking credits is removed.'

'These hearings will provide an opportunity for Australians impacted by a change to refundable franking credits to address the committee directly with a three minute statement, and we welcome their contributions and participation'. Mr Wilson said.
