

Please, I am begging you, please do something to curtail these 'questions'

Question time should be for the purpose of interrogating policy positions, not for endlessly spouting talking points. They waste the public's time and all parties are guilty of abusing them.

Yours in hope,
Duncan Turner