

The supermarkets want to take control of everything. They have many items to sell to make profit on. Leave the milk prices alone to let our dairy farmers survive.

Regards
Consumer