

Australian Government

Australian Government response to the Senate Select Committee report:

Effect of red tape on tobacco retail—second interim report.

SEPTEMBER 2024

Response to the recommendations

Australian Government response

The Government notes this recommendation. However, given the passage of time since this report was tabled, in June 2017, a substantive Government response is no longer appropriate.