

Yes I am concerned about the potential for damage to occur if the push to develop new ports continues and more coal is shipped out through the GBR. I think an inquiry into this proposed legislation is a good thing and should be supported.