'Green tape' inquiry moves to Sydney

The House Environment Committee will hold a public hearing in Sydney this Thursday, 1 May, as part of its inquiry into streamlining environmental regulation, 'green tape', and one stop shops for environmental assessments and approvals.

Evidence will be heard from a range of industry organisations and environmental groups.

Mr Alex Hawke MP, the Committee Chair, said "We have received some compelling submissions to the inquiry. We look forward to hearing in greater depth about the regulatory issues faced by a diverse range of groups and about what we can do to cut unnecessary green tape while still protecting our unique environment."

Details of the public hearing are as follows:
