

headspace National—Response to a question on notice asked by Senator Dean Smith

Question: Were any of you consulted by the eSafety Commissioner or the Government in developing the social media age minimum changes or the internet search engine code?

Response:

headspace National has participated in Government consultations on the implementation of the Online Safety Amendment (Social Medium Minimum Age) Act 2024, including via the Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts' consultation process on the draft rules under the new law. More broadly, headspace has also engaged with the eSafety Commissioner and Government, to enable headspace to support young people and their families through the implementation of the social media minimum age.

headspace National has not been consulted on the development of the Internet Search Engine Services Online Safety Code.
