

[REDACTED]

Private & Confidential

I wish to make a comment as a Foster carer for a 16 year old boy with FASD. When he turns 18 we will no longer receive a subsidy to help look after him.

Parents and care givers need to have support in the form of financial assistance for this life long disability. This disorder needs to be recognised as a eligibility for the Disability Support Pension to assist people unable to work.

Thank You

[REDACTED]