

ACT Government to give evidence at public hearing for ageing inquiry
Wednesday 25 June 2003 - Canberra

The House of Representatives Ageing Committee is conducting an Inquiry to investigate issues surrounding the ageing of the Australian population over the next 40 years.

The next public hearing of the inquiry will be held in Canberra on Wednesday 25 June 2003.

Appearing before the committee will be the Australian Capital Territory Government.

The ACT Government has a unique perspective to offer the Committee. The ACT government provides services in a unified framework which are usually divided between local government and State or Territory governments in other parts of Australia.

To date the Committee has received more than 150 submissions to its inquiry. The ACT Government's submission and other submissions and background material, are available on the inquiry website at: www.aph.gov.au/house/committee/ageing/strategies/index.htm

Hearing details are:

Date: Wednesday 25 June 2003
Time: 9.05am - 10.05am
Venue: House of Representatives Committee Room 1R6, Parliament House Canberra
