3. JOINT COMMITTEE ON THE BROADCASTING OF PARLIAMENTARY PROCEEDINGS—SECOND REPORT.—
Mr. Speaker, Chairman, presented the Second Report from the Joint Committee on the Broadcasting of Parliamentary Proceedings. The Report is as follows:—

The Joint Committee on the Broadcasting of Parliamentary Proceedings submits its Second Report for presentation to each House of the Parliament and recommends its adoption.

The Joint Committee has further considered the general principles upon which there should be determined the days upon which, and the periods during which, the proceedings of the Senate and the House of Representatives shall be broadcast, which were specified in its First Report adopted by both Houses on 5th July, 1946. In accordance with section 12 (1.) of the Parliamentary Proceedings Broadcasting Act 1946, the Joint Committee has now resolved—

- (a) That the following words be added to paragraph (2) of the general principles set out in its First Report "or at 11.30 p.m., whichever is the earlier."

(The paragraph would then read—

"(2) Periods during which proceedings shall be broadcast.

The broadcast shall commence on each sitting day at the time fixed for the meeting of the House whose opening proceedings are to be broadcast on that day as determined by the Joint Committee on the Broadcasting of Parliamentary Proceedings in accordance with section 12 (2.) of the Parliamentary Proceedings Broadcasting Act 1946, and shall cease when the adjournment is moved in the House which is being broadcast at that time or at 11.30 p.m., whichever is the earlier.").

- (b) That the following paragraph be added to the general principles set out in its First Report:—

"(6) The general principles specified in the First Report of the Joint Committee on the Broadcasting of Parliamentary Proceedings adopted by both Houses on 5th July, 1946, shall be observed generally by the Joint Committee in making determinations in accordance with the Parliamentary Proceedings Broadcasting Act 1946 but nothing in those general principles shall be taken to prevent the Joint Committee from departing from those general principles in order to meet any unusual or special circumstances."

J. S. ROSEVEAR,
Chairman.

16th July, 1946.
