

JOINT STANDING COMMITTEE ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS, DEFENCE & TRADE

MEDIA STATEMENT

WATCHING BRIEF ON THE WAR ON TERRORISM
PUBLIC HEARING

The seventh in a series of public hearings on Australia's preparedness to manage and respond to the consequences of a terrorist attack in Australia will be held in Hobart on Wednesday, 19th of November, 2003.

The hearing is being conducted by the Joint Standing Committee on Foreign Affairs, Defence and Trade as part of the Committee's ongoing Watching Brief on Australia's involvement in the War on Terrorism and into related actions in response to terrorism.

The hearing on Wednesday, 19th of November 2003 will focus on the role of the Tasmanian Government agencies in coordinating the immediate response to, and managing the consequences of, a terrorist attack.

PUBLIC HEARING

DATE: Wednesday, 19th November 2003
TIME: 09:30am to 12 noon
PLACE: Commonwealth Parliament Offices
Level 13
188 Colins Street
HOBART TAS

Canberra
November 2003

For comment contact Senator Alan Ferguson on (08) 8237 7180.
For information contact Dr Margot Kerley, the Committee Secretary, on (02) 6277 4629.