Thursday, 7 April 2011

Submission for the Inquiry into Multiculturalism in Australia

Submission

I believe multiculturalism can exist in Australia but it cannot be implemented in a blanket fashion allowing anyone and everyone to come into Australia. I am certainly not against multiculturalism, nor am I racist. I am a 3rd generation Australian and have married a French speaking European who has graciously integrated into the Australian culture, working hard, paying taxes, given the country 2 more beautiful kids and is more patriotic about Australia than her own country. This is the type of people I believe we need in this country.

From what I have seen, most nationalities and religions come to Australia for a better future. They bring a wealth of cultural positives and integrate, contributing to make Australia the fantastic place it is to live.

There is an exception to this, and I believe it comes in the form of Islam.

I have done sufficient research into Islam including reading many publications from ex-islamists, and the outcomes from my readings are frightening. What it has shown me is that Islam is far more than a religion, it's a political ideology that utilizes any means in order to propagate and infiltrate communities, governments and organizations in order to dominate and make its non peaceful agendas a reality. After reading a book called "The Islamist" by former Islamist Ed Hussain, it horrified me to learn that in Islam, it is ok to lie, deceive and manipulate in the name of Islam/Allah in order to take over and dominate. This to me is unacceptable, is not what we should be encouraging or accommodating and should at all cost be expelled from Australia as soon as we can.

Unfortunately the combination of political correctness and democracy is giving Islam the upper hand. With the help of organizations like Hizb Ut-Tahrir, Islamists along with unsuspecting "moderate" Muslims are using the freedoms and virtues that democracy gives them, combining it with political correctness and gaining the upper hand in the propaganda war that is pro Islam. They are doing this all under the illusion that they are here to integrate but I believe they are using our wonderful country and democratic process to infiltrate communities, governments and organizations to spread their Islamist ideology which is neither peaceful nor unifying.

At this point, many people would say I am racist. But what I would like to point out is that Islam spans countries, races and identity. I am no more of a racist denouncing Islam than I would be if I denounced Catholicism, something which would give a very different response if I did. Therefore I am not a racist, but unequivocally anti the truths about Islam, its values, it's incompatibility with Australia and it's propagation through Australia and our communities.

Searching YouTube the amount of vision on the disturbing trends in Europe is evident (see video link below), the biggest issue in Europe at this point in time is the rise of Islam. Australia is usually a few years behind Europe, so I am terrified to see how this is going to turn out for my kids and my grand kids.

http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=player_embedded&v=A3YQANdvvbY

The other fact that I have issues with, particularly in relation to the lies and deceit utilized by Islamist, is that "moderate-Muslims" are not taking a stand against the rise of Islam, they are standing quiet, they are sitting in the back ground, making excuses. This leads me to believe that they are either scared of reprisal from the Islamists, or they are also pro Islamist, which neither view is acceptable. If moderate Muslims are to be accepted by main stream Australians, they need to take a more active stance and fight back at extreme Islam, which includes the wearing of the burqa or niqab. This was also pointed out by Ed Hussain in his book "The Islamist" that "real" Muslims are not easily identifiable, they do not have beards, nor wear the burqa or niqab. Due to the rise in the amount of women wearing these I can only surmise the rise of extremists in Australia. The burqa or niqab is used as a form of power; it's used to express religious superiority over those who do not wear it. It's not about modesty; it's about making a statement that is very much anti western and Australian values. It is for this reason that I request the Australian government to follow the French and Belgian Governments and outlaw the burqa for its exclusivity and division that it is causing in the Australian community.

I also would like to see more Federal Police investigations into organizations such as the Hizb Ut-Tahrir. This organization is banned in all other Muslim countries but allowed to exist in the UK, USA, Canada, and Australia. Doesn't this say something? Ed Hussain has documented how he was a former member of the Hizb, and outlines in detail how its mandate is the Islamisation of the west and the indoctrination of Sharia law. Why is the Hizb Ut-Tahrir allowed to exist in Australia? The Hizb will deny heavily but how can you dispute a former member and the documented evidence that exists! The following video from the Hibz conference in Australia last year is more proof of the dangers of the Hibz and Islam in Australia.

http://www.heraldsun.com.au/news/national/islamist-leader-burhan-hanif-tells-aussie-muslims-told-to-shun-democracy/story-e6frf7l6-1225887784755

Conclusion

So in closing I do believe that multiculturalism can exist in Australia; but people from other cultures who are immigrating to Australia must integrate and move forward with values that are aligned with mainstream Australian values, not against them. It is for this reason that I do not believe Islam is compatible within Australian values and I strongly request that the Australian government take action and stop the rise of Islam in Australia and stop the immigration of Muslims before it's too late.