

Australian Parliament
Joint Standing Committee on Migration
Submission no. 322

Maria Vamvakinou M.P. Firstly I honour you for the dedication and hard work on behalf of myself and the community. I have only a small point to make. Although Australia has always been an open country and a welcoming country to immigrants, may i say that those immigrants, whether Greek, Chinese etc, etc, they have abided by our Australian way and have added to our interesting mix of cultures. They have never pushed to change our values and ways for theirs. And rightly so. May I warn you to look around at western nations and observe very carefully. Please do not happily accept ALL things in the name of multiculturalism. It will come back and damage us if you are not careful with legislation.
