| ACT Powers of Attorney Act 2006 | Sec. 89 Recognition of enduring powers of attorney made under other laws
(1) This section applies if—
(a) a document (the interstate enduring power of attorney) is expressed to be a power of attorney or guardianship document made under the law of a State or another Territory; and
(b) the interstate enduring power of attorney is not—
(i) revoked if the principal loses decision-making capacity; or
(ii) expressed to be irrevocable, whether completely or for a stated period.
(2) An interstate enduring power of attorney to which this section applies is taken to be an enduring power of attorney made under, and in compliance with, this Act, to the extent that the powers it gives could validly have been given by an enduring power of attorney made under this Act. | S. 29 Powers of attorney are deeds
(1) A power of attorney that complies with this Act is, for all purposes, taken to be a deed, even though it is not expressed to be a deed or to be sealed.
Note: A deed may be registered (see Registration of Deeds Act 1957) and must be registered for a dealing with land by the attorney to be registered (see Land Titles Act 1925, s 130).
(2) In this section: "power of attorney" includes—
(a) an amendment of a power of attorney; and
(b) a revocation of a power of attorney. | S. 22 Certificates by witnesses to powers of attorney
(1) If a power of attorney is signed by the principal, the power of attorney must include a certificate signed by each witness stating that—
(a) the principal signed the power of attorney voluntarily in the presence of the witness; and
(b) at the time the principal signed the power of attorney, the principal appeared to the witness to understand the nature and effect of making the power of attorney.
Note: A principal must understand the matters in s 17 to understand the nature and effect of making a power of attorney. However, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, the principal is taken to understand the nature and effect of making the power of attorney (see s 18). | Covered by Powers of Attorney Act 2006 | Medical Treatment Act 1994 | Guardianship and Management of Property Tribunal

| NSW Powers of Attorney Act 2003 | Sec. 25 Recognition of enduring powers of attorney made in other States and Territories
(1) An interstate enduring power of attorney has effect in this State as if it were an enduring power of attorney made under, and in compliance with, this Act, but only to the extent that the powers it gives under the law of the State or Territory in which it was made could validly have been given by an enduring power of attorney made under this Act.
(2) In particular, an interstate enduring power of attorney to which subsection (1) applies:
(a) has effect in this State subject to any limitations on the power that apply to it under the law of the State or Territory in which it was made, and
(b) does not operate to confer any power on an attorney in this State that cannot be conferred on an attorney under an enduring power of attorney made in this State. | S. 51 Powers of attorney may be registered
(1) Any instrument executed before or after the commencement of this Act that creates a power of attorney may be registered by the Registrar-General in the General Register of Deeds kept under the Conveyancing Act 1919.
(2) An instrument revoking a registered power of attorney may also be registered by the Registrar-General in that Register.
S. 52 (1) A conveyance or other deed affecting land executed on or after 1 July 1920 under a power of attorney has no effect unless the instrument creating the power has been registered. | S. 19 Creation of enduring power of attorney
(b) execution of the instrument by the principal is witnessed by a person who is a prescribed witness (not being an attorney under the power), and
(c) there is endorsed on, or annexed to, the instrument a certificate by that person stating that:
(i) the person explained the effect of the instrument to the principal before it was signed, and
(ii) the principal appeared to understand the effect of the power of attorney, and
(iv) the person is not an attorney under the power of attorney, and
(v) the person witnessed the signing of the power of attorney by the principal.
(2) ... a "prescribed witness" means:
(a) a registrar of a Local Court, or
(b) a barrister or solicitor of a court of any State or Territory of the Commonwealth, or
Guardianship Act 1987 | No legislation covering this. Guidelines have been published in 2005 for end-of-life care and decision-making, and health services are encouraged to develop policies based on this.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply to any power of attorney (or class of powers of attorney) prescribed by the regulations.
(4) A document signed by a qualified interstate legal practitioner that certifies that an interstate enduring power of attorney was made in accordance with the formal requirements of the law of the State or Territory in which it was made is admissible in any proceedings concerning that power and is prima facie evidence of the matter so certified.
(5) In this section:
"interstate enduring power of attorney" means a power of attorney made in another State or a Territory that, under the law of that State or Territory, has effect in that State or Territory as a valid power of attorney even if the principal loses capacity through mental incapacity after the execution of the instrument creating the power of attorney.
"qualified interstate legal practitioner", in relation to an interstate enduring power of attorney, means an individual:
(a) who has been admitted to legal practice in the State or Territory in which the power of attorney was made, and
(b) who holds a certificate or other form of authorisation that confers an authority to practise in that State or Territory that corresponds to the authority conferred by a practising certificate issued under Part 3 of the Legal Profession Act 1987, and
(c) who practises in that State or Territory.
(c) a licensee under the Conveyancers Licensing Act 1995, or an employee of the Public Trustee or a trustee company within the meaning of the Trustee Companies Act 1964, who has successfully completed a course of study approved by the Minister, by order published in the Gazette, for the purposes of this paragraph, or
(d) a legal practitioner duly qualified in a country other than Australia, instructed and employed independently of any legal practitioner appointed as an attorney under the instrument, or
(e) any other person (or person belonging to a class of persons) prescribed by the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

| NT | Powers of Attorney Act 1980 | S. 7 Registration (1A) An instrument creating a power of attorney that is a copy of an instrument that has been registered under a law in force in a State or another Territory of the Commonwealth may be registered under subsection (1). | S. 7 Registration (1) An instrument creating or revoking a power may be registered. | S. 6 Execution of instruments creating or revoking powers (4) Where a person executes an instrument creating a power by direction and in the presence of the donor of the power, the instrument shall be attested by 2 other persons (the donor of the power excepted) present as witnesses. S. 14 Execution of instrument creating enduring powers An instrument creating an enduring power shall be executed in the presence of a witness who is not the donee of the power or the person executing the power. | No specific legislation addressing this | Natural Death Act 1988 | Office of Adult Guardianship Office of the Public Guardian Public Trustee Department of Justice |
| QLD | Powers of Attorney Act 1998 | Sec. 34  Recognition of enduring power of attorney made in other States
If an enduring power of attorney is made in another State and complies with the requirements in the other State, then, to the extent the powers it gives could validly have been given by an enduring power of attorney made under this Act, the enduring power of attorney must be treated as if it were an enduring power of attorney made under, and in compliance with, this Act. | S. 25  Registration of powers of attorney and instruments revoking powers
(1) A power of attorney may be registered.
(2) An instrument revoking a power of attorney may be registered.
(3) Subject to another Act or a contrary intention in the power of attorney, if the power of attorney has been registered under an Act, it does not cease to authorise the attorney to do for the principal anything relevant to the purpose for which it was registered until an instrument revoking the power of attorney has been registered.
(4) This section also applies to a power of attorney made before the commencement of this Act.26 | S. 31 Meaning of eligible witnesses
(1) An eligible witness, for a document, is a person who—
(a) except for a document revoking an advance health directive—is a justice, commissioner for declarations, notary public or lawyer; and
(b) is not the person signing the document for the principal; and
(c) is not an attorney of the principal; and
(d) is not a relation of the principal or a relation of an attorney of the principal; and
(e) if the document gives power for a personal matter—is not a paid carer or health provider of the principal; and
(f) for an advance health directive—is at least 21 years and not a beneficiary under the principal's will.
(2) To avoid any doubt, it is declared that a person is not excluded from being an eligible witness merely because the person is an attorney's employee who is the witness for the document while acting in the ordinary course of employment. | Powers of Attorney Act 1998 | The Act has no specific provision addressing the recognition of powers of attorney made in other jurisdictions. | May be registered in accordance with the Registration of Deeds Act 1935, Part 2 | S. 6 Enduring powers of attorney
(2) A deed is not effective to create an enduring power of attorney unless—
(a) The attesting witness to the deed, or, where there is more than one attesting witness, at least one of them, is a person authorised by law to take affidavits …

104A . Recognition of powers of attorney created in other jurisdictions
(1) The donee of a power of attorney created under the laws of another State, Territory or country may apply to the Board for an order recognizing that power of attorney as an enduring power of attorney for the purposes of this Part.
(2) Where the Board is satisfied, on an application made under subsection (1), that-
(a) a power of attorney created under the laws of another State, Territory or country corresponds sufficiently, in form and effect, to a power of attorney created under section 104; and
(b) it is appropriate to do so,
the Board may make an order recognizing that power of attorney as an enduring power of attorney for the purposes of this Part.
(3) Sections 41(1) and (3) and 42 apply, with all necessary changes, to an application under subsection (1) as if it were an application for an administration order.
(4) The Board may at any time on the application of a person who in the opinion of the Board has a proper interest in the matter revoke an order made under subsection (2).

Powers of attorney can be registered in accordance with the Transfer of Land Act 1893

104 . Execution of enduring power of attorney
(2) (a) there are 2 attesting witnesses to the instrument and both of them are persons authorised by law to take declarations

Covered by Guardianship and Administration Act 1990
