Dear Mr Elder

Further to my advice of 14 July and returned letter with the dissolution of Parliament I write to declare for the purpose of my Statement of Members' Interest a Salvatore Ferragamo scarf valued at $300 and Salvatore Ferragamo tie valued at $180.

These gifts were presented to me by Dr Chau Chak Wing on the 21 June 2010.

I have kept the scarf and surrendered the tie to the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet. As I believed appropriate, I also sent a cheque to the value of $180 to the Department to cover the amount in excess of the registrable amount. This was returned to me from the Department with the advice that I had complied accordingly and the payment was not necessary as the tie had been surrendered.

Please update the register accordingly to reflect these changes.

Yours sincerely

I wish to advise for the purposes of updating my Statement of Member's Interest, gifts received from official sources and hospitality whilst on my recent overseas trip to the United States of America.

President Obama presented me with a Custom Oval Office Rug Platter with a personalized inscription estimated value US$936.16. Once the Platter is returned to me from the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet, it is my intention to keep the gift. I will be guided by the Departments advice as to the amount I am required to remit to the Department to ensure I comply with the registrable gifts requirements.

I also received from House Speaker John Boehner an engraved silver water pitcher which I understand is valued at US$300-320.

In regards to hospitality, I accepted the invitation by the President to reside at Blair House for 2 nights whilst in Washington.

I also received an upgrade to the Presidential Suite at The Willard Hotel.
