

PARLIAMENT OF AUSTRALIA

MEDIA RELEASE

Issued: 28 June 2012

Parliamentary Standing Committee on Public Works

Chair: Ms Janelle Saffin MP

Public hearing scheduled for proposed Defence housing development planned for Lindfield in Sydney

Representatives of Defence Housing Australia will appear before the Public Works Committee on Tuesday 3 July 2012 for the inquiry into the proposed development of housing for Defence at Lindfield in Sydney.

The proposed housing development would provide necessary housing for families of Defence personnel working in the central Sydney area. The development will provide 173 dwellings at Lindfield which will reduce the number of Defence personnel on rental assistance. The total cost of the project is approximately $202 million. This cost would be recovered through sale of individual lots to the general market and the sale of DHA constructed housing through its Sale and Lease Back program.

Full details on Defence Housing Australia's proposal are available on the Committee's website: www.aph.gov.au/pwc

Representatives from the Defence Housing Australia and their consultants will give evidence at the hearing.
