

Sc

Bemban

Dear Susan Leg

I wish to protest about the water allocation suggested. Our farms need water to survive. The drought has hurt this area. We have very few young people in this area as there has been no farm work. The people who suggest these terms certainly do not live in the country and do not know that trees will survive on much less. Bush for city slickers is fine but I can't eat gum leaves.

Yours

Aileen Bradley