| 11. Gifts   | End Child Poverty is a collaboration between the Valuing Children Initiative and Centrecare to raise awareness of the 17% or nearly 1,000,000 children who are estimated to live in poverty, When children grow up in poverty research shows they are 11% less likely to be employed in later life, 3.3 times more likely to experience adult poverty, they miss out on necessary meals or a safe place to sleep, and moving house suddenly or often can mean they also lose their best friend, their teddies. To highlight this fact the organisation has delivered to my Parliamentary office a 200mm high chocolate brown soft teddy bear plush toy, wearing a dark blue Polyester T-shirt emblazoned with the End Child Poverty logo along with an information pack about the work being conducted by the program – Cost unknown |
