The above information is in respect of transitory persons who arrived after 19 July 2013 and were transferred from a regional processing country (RPC) to Australia under section 198B, 198E or 198G of the Migration Act 1958 (the Act) for a temporary purpose.*

The Department received ministerial direction not to refer persons who arrived after 19 July 2013 for consideration under section 197AB of the Act for a possible residence determination. This was formalised in the section 197AB Ministerial Guidelines signed on 18 February 2014, establishing persons who arrived after 19 July 2013 should not be referred for consideration unless there were exceptional circumstances.

The guidelines were later amended (signed 29 March 2015) to specifically include where a person was transferred from an offshore processing centre to Australia for medical treatment or otherwise could be referred for consideration under section 197AB of the Act.

Sections 195A and 46B (Questions e-f)

Information on transitory persons referred to the Minister for consideration under section 195A prior to July 2018 is not available in departmental systems in a reportable format.
