2019-20 Supplementary budget estimates

Community Affairs Committee, Health Portfolio

Senator Malarndirri McCarthy: asked the Department of Health on 23 October 2019—

Senator McCARTHY: So let me get those figures. Of the $320 million, a 30 per cent increase in relation to viability; is that correct? Mr Smith: A 30 per cent increase to the viability supplement, yes. Senator McCARTHY: You said 30 per cent in relation to homelessness? Mr Smith: The homelessness supplement, yes. Mr Hallinan: They are both in addition to the $320 million. Senator McCARTHY: So, in addition to the $320 million? Mr Hallinan: There is an ongoing uplift in the viability supplements. Senator McCARTHY: How much of the $320 million has been allocated to date? Mr Smith: It's all been paid out. Senator McCARTHY: How was it decided which residential aged-care facility received funding first? Mr Smith: It was paid via a general uplift to the subsidy. It was paid to all residential providers proportionally. Senator McCARTHY: How many is that? Mr Smith: There are 800-odd residential providers and 2,700 services. They all received an uplift. Ms Beauchamp: In addition to those viability supplements, which are particularly focused on rural, regional and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander facilities, there was extra targeting for those services as well as the additional uplift across the board of the $320 million. Senator McCARTHY: When you say that there was a general uplift, what was the general uplift for each of them? Mr Smith: It averaged around $1,800 per resident. Senator McCARTHY: When was that paid? Mr Smith: Between March and June 2019. Senator McCARTHY: On top of the $1,800 per resident, is there a 30 per cent supplement on the viability and homelessness on top of that? Mr Smith: Yes. Senator McCARTHY: Could you provide a full list, including the funding amounts, for the committee? Mr Smith: I'm sorry, a full list of the providers that received those supplements? Senator McCARTHY: That's correct, yes. Mr Smith: Yes, we can do that. I'd have to take that on notice, but yes.
