Senator the Hon Kristina Keneally: asked the Australian Border Force on 22 March 2021—

Senator KENEALLY: This might be better addressed to the commissioner of the Border Force. How many non-citizens have arrived in Australia since 1 December 2020?

Mr Outram: I have total arrivals. Sorry, let me just get the right brief here, Senator. I was reading a brief just before I came in that I think goes to this. As at 28 February 2021, the total number of arrivals?are you asking for inwards exemptions?

Senator KENEALLY: No, noncitizens.

Mr Outram: Noncitizens, which are inwards exemptions. With the inwards exemptions, I only have to approve people who are not exempt. So those who are exempt are, of course, Australians and permanent residents who are not citizens and their immediately family.

Senator KENEALLY: So, let's make it people who are not citizens or permanent residents, for the sake of simplicity.

Mr Outram: As of 28 February, 38,589 had been approved to come.

Senator KENEALLY: Over what time period?

Mr Outram: That's going back, I am assuming, to the start of the measure last year. I'll get the exact date. This count starts from 1 August 2020, so from then there were 38,589 approved and 76,652 refused. I can give you a snapshot, for example, of the past 24 hours. This is taken for 21 March 2021, so this is a 24-hour snapshot. For inward travel exemptions we approved 44 and refused 161. That gives you a sense of the scale of the thing.

Senator KENEALLY: On this section, yes, thank you. Commissioner, from that date, 1 August 2020, on the number you just gave me, 38,589?I'm happy for you to take this on notice?is that able to be broken down in terms of tourist visas, temporary work visas, significant investor visas and superyacht crew visas?

Mr Kefford: Senator, for those categories, we could take that on notice.

Senator KENEALLY: Thank you, Mr Kefford, I appreciate that.

Note: The figure of 38,589, quoted in the question above, is the total number of inwards travel exemptions approvals from 20 March 2020 to 28 February 2021, inclusive. A correction to Hansard has been provided.

 Prior to 3 December 2020, visa subclass data was only captured for the primary traveller in a travel exemption request.

This figure includes individuals who declared they did not hold or had not applied for a visa, as well as individuals with no captured visa subclass information.

Notes:

- i. 'Requests' means individuals who sought an exemption. An individual may submit more than one request.
- ii. The sum of approved and refused requests may not equate to the total number of requests received in the same period, as requests may be otherwise finalised (persons found to meet an already exempt category, withdrawn requests, or requests that did not contain sufficient information for referral to a decision maker); or received or finalised outside the reporting period.
