Program 2.2: Visas

AE22-110 - Visa cancellations - by country

Senator Nick McKim asked:

Since January 2018, how many people from the following countries had their Australian visas cancelled en route to Australia or upon arrival turned around:

- a. Afghanistan;
- b. Sudan;
- c. South Sudan;
- d. Myanmar;
- e. Ethiopia;
- f. Saudi Arabia (please break down between men and women);
- g. other Gulf states; and
- h. Papua New Guinea?

Answer:

The Department does not record data on visas cancelled while a person is en route to Australia. The refused immigration clearance data below includes, but is not limited to, cancellations made at the border.

Refused Immigration Clearance on Arrival: 1 January 2018 to 31 December 2021

PASSPORT COUNTRY	TOTAL:
AFGHANISTAN	<15
ETHIOPIA	<5
MYANMAR	21
PAPUA NEW GUINEA	357
SAUDI ARABIA*	10
SUDAN	<15
OTHER GULF STATES	<5
TOTAL	427

*This cohort consists of males only

For the purposes of this reporting 'other Gulf states' are Bahrain, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar and the United Arab Emirates

Note: There were no refused immigration clearance records for citizens of Bahrain, Oman, South Sudan or Qatar.
