AE22-154 - Nauru- Number of assisted voluntary returns of Australia's offshore processing cohort

Senator Nick McKim asked:

How many assisted voluntary returns of Australia's offshore processing cohort have taken place to countries of origin from Nauru?

a. How many of those men, women and children were found to be refugees?

Answer:

Between 2012 and 31 December 2021, 111 transferees had departed Nauru voluntarily and returned to their country of origin, 13 of which were recognised as refugees by the Government of Nauru.

Note: Figures exclude voluntary returns to their country of origin from Australia.

Note: Figures exclude returns to a third country not being their country of origin.
