Senator Stirling Griff asked:

Since the repeal of medevac, how many individuals have been transferred to Australia from PNG and Nauru? Of these, how many were assessed and recommended for transfer under medevac?

Answer:

Since the repeal of the medevac provisions, between 5 December 2019 and 31 December 2021:

- 106 transitory persons were transferred from Nauru or Papua New Guinea to Australia for a temporary purpose under section 198B of the Migration Act 1958.
 - 42 of the 106 transitory persons were previously assessed and recommended for transfer under the now repealed medevac provisions.
