Answer:

Of the 3,150 unauthorised maritime arrivals taken to a regional processing country since 19 July 2013, and as at 31 December 2023:

- a. 1,005 were in Australia.
- b. 791 were in the Australian community with a visa in effect:
 - Less than 725 were on an Australian Subclass 050 (Bridging E) visa,
 - 35 were on a Subclass 790 (Safe Haven Enterprise) visa,
 - Less than five were on a Subclass 100 (Partner (Migrant) visa), and
 - Less than 35 were on a Subclass 851 (Resolution of Status) visa.
- c. 37 were in the Australian community without a visa, having held an expired Subclass 050 (Bridging E) visa.
- d. Less than 40 were permanent residents.
- e. Less than five were Australian citizens.

- f. 2,215 were no longer subject to regional processing arrangements.
- g. Less than five were in an immigration detention facility.
- h. 172 were in the Australian community under a residence determination.
- i. 2,120 were found to be refugees by a respective regional processing country.
- j. None were subject to an adverse security assessment by ASIO.
- k. 780* were returned or removed to their country of origin. Of these:
 - 760 were voluntary; and
 - 20 were involuntary undertaken by a regional processing country under its domestic laws.
- l. 1,224 persons were resettled in a third country:
 - 1,040 resettled in the United States,
 - Seven resettled in Cambodia,
 - 92 resettled in New Zealand, and
 - 85 resettled in other third countries.

Note: Other resettlement outcomes are not facilitated by the Department of Home Affairs.
- m. 16 were in Nauru, and 105 individuals were in PNG at 31 December 2021 (excluding less than 5 individuals incarcerated).
- n. 16 are deceased.

*Figures exclude less than five individuals voluntarily returned to a third country.

This figure does not include 13 individuals resettled in the United States from PNG after 31 December 2021.

Effective 31 December 2021, Australia's regional processing association with PNG ended, with arrangements transitioning to the PNG Government's independent management. The residual PNG population is not included in the overall regional processing caseload and is not actively monitored or reported.
