Portfolio question number: SQ23-005350

2023-24 Supplementary Budget estimates

Rural and Regional Affairs and Transport Committee, Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts Portfolio

Senator Bridget McKenzie: asked the Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts on 2 November 2023—

(1.What briefs have the Department provided to Minister on the Harris Review? I would like the dates please.

2.When did you last receive correspondence from the Minister on this?

3.Is the Department aware of the views of industry stakeholders in the slow response to the Harris Review?

4.Is it reasonable to expect a response to the Harris Review given the public interest in this issue?

5.Sydney Airport's demand management scheme regulations are scheduled to sunset in early 2024. You were asked about this in the recent Senate Committee and took it on notice. In your answer to questions on notice to the senate committee (IQ23-000163) , you advised that there was consultation with industry stakeholders, and there is current consultation on the Green Paper.

a.I would like to know, what is the plan for the demand management scheme at Sydney Airport after the sunset date?

6.Throughout the Senate Inquiry into the aviation sector over the last few months, we heard evidence from smaller airlines like Rex and Bonza, that acting on recommendations from the Harris Review would assist smaller competitors in the market.

Would you agree that inaction on slots at Sydney Airport favours major airlines like Qantas and prolongs disadvantage for smaller airlines?
