Topic: Melbourne Airport's Third Runway Health Study

Senator Steph Hodgins-May asked:

1. Please table the full Quigley & Watts Ltd health study commissioned by Australian Pacific Airports for their Major Development Plan for the third runway.
2. Did the government consider the full Quigley & Watts Ltd health study when making the decision to approve Melbourne Airport's third runway? Or were only the findings considered, as presented by Australian Pacific Airports' in their Master Development Plan (as tabled in response to SQ23-003622)?

Answer:

1. The Department of Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development, Communications and the Arts does not have possession of the Quigley and Watts Ltd Health Study.
2. In line with legislated requirements under the Airports Act 1996, the Minister for Infrastructure, Transport, Regional Development and Local Government, the Hon Catherine King MP, considered the full draft Major Development Plan (dMDP) and the accompanying documentation as listed in the Minister's Statement of Reasons.
