 - (e) for failing to put working families first in developing its plans to dramatically change Australia’s industrial relations laws;

 - (h) for attacking the living standards of Australian employees and their families by removing the ‘no disadvantage test’ from collective and individual agreements;
 - (i) by allowing employees to be forced onto unfair Australian Workplace Agreements as a condition of employment;
 - (j) for abolishing annual wage increases made by the Australian Industrial Relations Commission for workers under Awards with the objective of reducing the Minimum Wage in real terms, and by removing the requirement that fairness be taken into account in the calculation of the Minimum Wage;

 - (q) for denying Australian employees the capacity to bargain collectively with their employer for decent wages and conditions;
 - (r) for denying individuals the right to reject individual contracts which cut pay and conditions and undermine collective bargaining and union representation;
 - (s) for allowing individual contracts to undermine the rights of Australian workers under collective agreements and Awards, for instance by eliminating penalty rates, shift loadings, overtime and holiday pay and other Award conditions;
 - (t) for removing from almost 4 million employees any protection from unfair dismissal;
 - (u) for refusing to consult with State Governments in developing a unitary industrial relations system resulting in an inadequate and incomplete national system;
 - (v) for launching an unprovoked attack on responsible trade unions and asserting that those unions have no role in the economic and social future of Australia;
 - (w) for proposing to jail union representatives or fine them up to $33,000 if they negotiate to include health and safety, training and other clauses in agreements;
 - (x) for ignoring the concerns of the Australian community and Churches of the adverse impact these changes will have on Australian employees and their families;

- (2) congratulates those who held events across the country aimed at enlisting the Australian community in this healing process;
