7. NAVIGATION BILL (1935).—The Order of the Day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question, That the Bill be now read a second time—

Debate resumed by Mr. Holloway, who moved, as an amendment, That all words after "That" be omitted with a view to the insertion of the following words in place thereof:—

"this House is of opinion that it is unnecessary and unjustified to interfere in the manner proposed in this Bill with the established national policy of maintaining and extending an Australian mercantile marine service subject to the legislative control of this Parliament and conforming to Australian industrial standards, and that no attempt to redress the grievances of Tasmania, in respect of its shipping disabilities, will satisfy this House or the people unless it proposes—

(a) To secure to that State immediately by means of conditional subsidies an equitable reduction of shipping freights and fares; and

(b) To institute, as soon as practicable, a Commonwealth-owned service providing direct and frequent communication between Tasmanian ports and the ports of the mainland;

and this House is further of opinion that the Bill should be withdrawn, and a new Bill, embodying provisions as to wireless telegraphy apparatus and reduction of shipping freights and fares, be introduced at once".

Debate continued.

Mr. Frost moved, That the debate be now adjourned.

Question—That the debate be now adjourned—put and passed.

Ordered—That the resumption of the debate be made an Order of the Day for the next sitting.
