

1943-44.

THE PARLIAMENT OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA.

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS

OF THE

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

No. 24.

WEDNESDAY, 8TH MARCH, 1944.

1. The House met, at half-past two o'clock p.m., pursuant to adjournment.—Mr. Speaker (the Honorable J. S. Rosevear) took the Chair, and read Prayers.
2. PAPERS.—The following Papers were presented, pursuant to Statute—
 National Security Act—
 National Security (General) Regulations—Order—Navigation (Control of public traffic) (No. 2).
 Regulations—Statutory Rules 1944, Nos. 43, 44, 45.
3. CONSTITUTION ALTERATION (POST-WAR RECONSTRUCTION) BILL 1944.—The Order of the Day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question, That the Bill be now read a second time—And on the Amendment moved thereto by Mr. Menzies, viz. :—That all words after " That " be omitted with a view to inserting the following in place thereof :—
 - " (1) the reinstatement and advancement of those who have been members of the Fighting Services of the Commonwealth in any war and the advancement of the dependants of those members who have died or been disabled as the consequence of such war, the reinstatement and rehabilitation of those other persons, who by reason of war conditions have been displaced from their normal peace-time occupations, the reconstruction of primary and secondary industry are the first obligations of government in the immediate period after the war ;
 - (2) that the existing powers of the Commonwealth are not shown to be inadequate for such purposes ;
 - (3) that it is, however, proper that any doubt on these points should be resolved by appropriate Constitutional amendment ;
 - (4) that no amendment should be approved which would authorize the socialization of industry, the undue centralization of administration, or the maintenance of such laws as unnecessarily interfere with the liberty of citizens to choose their own means of living and to exercise their rights as free people ;
 - (5) further, that the House is concerned at the extent of the surrender of legislative powers to administrative officials ;
 - (6) that, to afford adequate power to the Government and sufficient protection to the citizen, the Bill should be withdrawn and redrafted so as to declare or provide, over a period of five years from the termination of actual hostilities, that the Commonwealth Parliament has, or should have (as the case may be) power to make laws for the peace, order and good government of the Commonwealth with respect to the fullest repatriation powers ; the use of grants, loans, insurance, training and public works for the provision of employment and the prevention or correction of unemployment ; the organized marketing of primary products of which there is normally an export surplus, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 92 ; the prevention of unreasonable restraint of trade ; the prevention of inflation ; the use of economic regulations only to the extent necessary to deal with the problem of transition from war to peace ; air transport ; national health ; family endowment ; and the people of the aboriginal race ; but should not have power to enable the Executive to engage in any civil production, industry, or commercial process, not authorized by its now existing powers ;
 - (7) that provision should be made that during such period the exercise of such additional powers, when it possesses a legislative nature, should be by Parliament or, if performed by virtue of some delegation by Parliament, should be in terms which when Parliament is sitting have been first laid before and not disapproved by Parliament, and when Parliament is not sitting have been circulated to members at least 14 days before becoming operative ;
 - (8) that provision should be made for the setting up, within a period of two years after the termination of actual hostilities, of an elective popular convention for the review of the structure and working of the Constitution "—
