Clause 28—

On the motion of Mr. Davidson, the following amendment was made, after debate:—

Page 17, omit proposed sub-section (8.), insert the following sub-sections:—

“(8.) The Board may, in its discretion, order a party to proceedings before the Board under this section to pay to another party such amount in respect of costs as is fixed by the Board, and the party to whom the costs are payable may recover the amount of the costs as a debt by action in a court of competent jurisdiction.

“(9.) Where the Board makes an order under sub-section (1.) of this section, the person against whom the order is made may appeal against the order to the Commonwealth Industrial Court on the ground—

(a) that he had a reasonable ground of objection to the making of the order; or

(b) that the terms and conditions specified in the order are not just and reasonable in all the circumstances.

19th May, 1960.

' (10.) The Commonwealth Industrial Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine an appeal under this section, and shall—

- (a) if it is satisfied that the ground of appeal specified in paragraph (a) of the last preceding sub-section has been established—quash the order;
- (b) if it is satisfied that the ground of appeal specified in paragraph (b) of the last preceding sub-section has been established—either quash the order or direct that the order be varied in such manner as will, in the judgment of the Court, make the terms and conditions just and reasonable in all the circumstances; or
- (c) if it is not satisfied that a ground of appeal has been established—dismiss the appeal.

' (11.) An appeal under this section shall be by way of rehearing, but the Court may have regard to any evidence given before the Board.

' (12.) The jurisdiction of the Commonwealth Industrial Court under this section may be exercised by a single Judge.

' (13.) Sub-sections (5.) and (6.) of this section apply both in and outside Australia, and, for the purpose of giving jurisdiction to courts with respect to any offence arising under either of those sub-sections outside Australia, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed at any place in Australia where the offender is found, resides or carries on business.

' (14.) In this section—

“ licensee ”, in relation to a national television station, means the Commission;

“ person ” includes the Commission;

“ television film ” or “ film ” means any photographic film, magnetic tape or other thing from which images can be reproduced and which is intended for use for televising images (not being commercial advertisements), and includes a sound recording for use in conjunction with any such film, tape or other thing.

' (15.) In this section, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to a particular television film includes a reference to any print, copy or facsimile of that television film.'.”

Clause, as amended, agreed to.

Clauses 29 to 35, by leave, taken together, and agreed to.

New Clauses—

On the motion of Mr. Davidson, by leave, the following new clauses were together inserted in the Bill, after debate:—

“ 25A. Section eighty-two of the Principal Act is amended by adding at the end thereof the following sub-section:— Applications for licences.

' (3.) This section does not apply in relation to the renewal of a licence.'.”

“ 25B. Section eighty-six of the Principal Act is amended by omitting sub-sections (3.) and (4.) and inserting in their stead the following sub-sections:— Revocation and suspension of licences.

' (3.) The suspension of a licence shall be for a specified period not exceeding seven days.

' (4.) If, within the period for which a licence is suspended on a particular ground, the Minister notifies the Board that it appears to him that he should consider revoking the licence upon that ground, the suspension shall, by force of this sub-section, continue until—

- (a) the Board (if it sees fit to do so before the completion of the inquiry) orders that the suspension shall cease;
- (b) the Board has made a report recommending that the licence be not revoked on that ground; or
- (c) the Board has made a report recommending that the licence be revoked on that ground and the Minister has either revoked the licence or, having decided not to revoke the licence, removes the suspension.'.”

“ 26A. After section eight-seven of the Principal Act the following section is inserted:—

' 87A.—(1.) A person whose licence is revoked under section eighty-six of this Act Appeals. may appeal to the Commonwealth Industrial Court against the revocation.

' (2.) The Commonwealth Industrial Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine an appeal under this section, and shall—

- (a) if it is satisfied that the ground for the revocation has been established—confirm the revocation; or
- (b) if it is not so satisfied—order that the licence be restored by the Minister.

' (3.) An appeal under this section shall be by way of rehearing, but the Court may have regard to any evidence given before the Board at the inquiry that preceded the revocation.

' (4.) The jurisdiction of the Commonwealth Industrial Court under this section may be exercised by a single Judge.'.”
