“ 4. Section 106 of the Principal Act is repealed and the following section inserted in its stead:—

‘ 106. In printing the ballot-papers to be used in a House of Representatives election—

(a) the order of the names of the candidates on the ballot-papers shall be determined as follows:—

- (i) the Divisional Returning Officer shall, at the place of nomination, immediately after the close of nominations and before all persons present, make out in respect of each candidate a slip bearing the name of the candidate, enclose each slip in a separate blank envelope of exact similarity and deposit the several envelopes in a locked ballot-box;
- (ii) the Divisional Returning Officer shall then shake and rotate the ballot-box and shall permit any other person present, if he so desires, to do the same;
- (iii) the ballot-box shall then be unlocked and an officer of the Commonwealth Public Service, other than the Divisional Returning Officer, shall take out and open the envelopes from the ballot-box one by one; and

- (iv) the candidate whose name appears on the slip enclosed in the envelope first taken from the ballot-box shall be placed first on the ballot-papers, the candidate whose name appears on the slip enclosed in the envelope next taken from the ballot-box shall be placed next on the ballot-papers and so on until the placing of all the names has been determined;
- (b) where similarity in the names of two or more candidates is likely to cause confusion, the names of those candidates may be arranged with such description or addition as will distinguish them from one another; and
- (c) except as otherwise provided by the regulations, a square shall be printed opposite the name of each candidate.'”.

Debate ensued.
