- Privilege—Complaint of breach—Matter raised by—
- Mr K. J. Andrews; Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 1514. Speaker stated that he had not concluded that precedence should be accorded to a motion on the matter, but he would consider any further information provided to him, 1517-18.
  - Mr N. A. Brown; Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 85. Speaker stated that he was unable to find that a prima facie case of breach of privilege or contempt had been made out, 93.

Mr Cadman; Speaker indicated that he would await the committee's consideration of the matter, 1429. Speaker stated that he had been advised that the Legal and Constitutional Affairs Committee had concluded that there was no breach of standing order 340 and that publication of the articles had not interfered substantially with the committee's work, the committee system or functions of the House, 1489.

Mr Connolly; Speaker indicated that he was not prepared to give precedence to motion in respect of the matter, 1391.

Mr Downer; Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 1003. Speaker stated that he was prepared to accord precedence to a motion in respect of the matter; motion to refer matter to Committee of Privileges agreed to, 1012.

Mr Howard; Deputy Speaker stated that he would bring the matter to the attention of the Speaker, 813. Speaker stated that he did not consider that a question of privilege or contempt had arisen and accordingly he was not prepared to give precedence to a motion on this matter, 831.

Mr Nugent; Deputy Speaker stated that he would bring the matter to the attention of the Speaker, 1313. Speaker stated that he was prepared to accord precedence to a motion in respect of the matter; motion to refer matter to Committee of Privileges agreed to, 1324-5.

Mr Peacock—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 137. Speaker stated that he was unable to find that a prima facie case of contempt or breach of privilege had been made out, 165.

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 817. Speaker stated that he was not aware of any exact precedents for the matters and, as no Member had used the procedures of the House to claim that he or she had been subject to intimidation or improper influence, he was not prepared to grant precedence to a motion on the complaint, 858.

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 977. Speaker reaffirmed the view expressed in his statement of 5 June 1991, and stated that he was not prepared to grant precedence to a motion in respect of the matter, 981.

Mr Scholes; Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 183. Speaker stated that he believed that it was a borderline case upon which the House would benefit from the advice of the Committee of Privileges and he was prepared to allow precedence to a motion to refer the matter to the Committee of Privileges; motion to refer matter to Committee of Privilege agreed to, 187.

Mr Sinclair—

Speaker stated that he did not consider that a prima facie case had been made out and accordingly was not prepared to give precedence to a motion in respect of the matter, 1359-60.

Speaker stated that he was not prepared to give precedence to a motion in respect of the matter, 1367.

Mr Smith—

Acting Speaker stated that he felt completely free in conducting his duties in the Parliament and that credibility should not be given to unsubstantiated press reports, 1718.

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 686. Speaker stated that a prima facie case had been made out such as would warrant precedence being granted to a motion in respect of the matter; motion to refer matter to Committee of Privileges agreed to, 698.

Dr Theophanous—

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 169. Speaker stated that a prima facie case had been made out such as would justify him according precedence to a motion on the matter, 172. Joint Standing Committee on Migration Regulations concluded that it would not persist in having matter referred to Committee of Privileges, 191-2.

Speaker stated that he would consider the matter, 187. Speaker stated that he was prepared to accord precedence to a motion in respect of the matter, 188-9. Report by Dr Theophanous on the consideration of the matter by the Joint Standing Committee on Migration Regulations, 191-2. Motion to refer matter to Committee of Privileges debated; amendment moved (Mr Peacock); motion and amendment debated; amendment negatived; motion agreed to, 195-6.

Acting Speaker referred to Speaker's statement setting out the manner in which complaints of premature disclosure of committee material should be handled and stated that the Committee would need to give further consideration to the issue and inform the House of the result of those considerations so that any appropriate action could be taken, 1684.
