28 February 1997—Message No. 103—

Customs Amendment (No. 1) 1997.

Customs Depot Licensing Charges 1997.

10 AUTOMOBILE INDUSTRY

Dr Theophanous, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) acknowledges the progress made by local car and component manufacturers and their labour force in achieving increased productivity, improved export performance and quality production to the benefit of Australian consumers;
- (2) expresses its concerns at the majority recommendations of the Industry Commission interim report on the automobile industry and especially the recommendation to reduce tariffs below 15%;
- (3) expresses its concerns that the Chairman of the Commission has chosen to publicly advocate this recommendation, while at the same time pretending that he will produce an objective final report;
- (4) expresses its firm belief that when all factors are taken into account (including Australia's obligations under the World Trade Organisation) the overwhelming national interest is for motor car tariffs to remain at 15% after the year 2000; and
- (5) is of the view that the reductions which have taken place in the tariffs to this point have not significantly cut the prices of motor cars for consumers and that to reduce tariffs below 15% will be tantamount to devastating the Australian automobile industry and destroying thousands of skilled jobs in regional Australia.

Debate ensued.

The time allotted for the debate having expired, the debate was interrupted and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for the next sitting.

11 ABC CHARTER

Mr Broadbent, for Mr Lieberman, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

- (1) notes in the recommendations by Mr Bob Mansfield on the role and functions of the ABC, that a revised ABC Charter should emphasise the importance of providing services to regional Australia and the need for ABC services generally to reflect Australian regional and cultural diversity;
- (2) strongly endorses the recommendation; and
- (3) calls on the Government to adopt the recommendation and to expand urgently the Charter accordingly.

Debate ensued.
