7 HEALTH LEGISLATION AMENDMENT (PRIVATE HEALTH INSURANCE) BILL 2006

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the bill be now read a second time—

Ms Gillard moved, as an amendment—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “whilst not declining to give the bill a second reading, the House is of the view that the Minister stands condemned for failing to:

- (1) address the concerns of members of Medibank Private and proceeding with the sale of Medibank Private even though the majority of Australians are opposed to the sale; and

- (2) address critical structural weaknesses in the health sector such as workforce shortages and the rising costs of health”.

Debate resumed.

It being 10.30 a.m., in accordance with the resolution agreed to earlier this day, the debate was interrupted and Mr Abbott (Minister for Health and Ageing) summed up the second reading debate.

Amendment negatived.

Question—That the bill be now read a second time—put and passed—bill read a second time.

In accordance with the resolution agreed to earlier this day, the question—That the remaining stages of the bill be agreed to—put and passed—bill read a third time.

8 DO NOT CALL REGISTER BILL 2006

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the bill be now read a second time—

Debate resumed.

Mr Fitzgibbon moved, as an amendment—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “whilst not declining to give the bill a second reading, the House:

- (1) welcomes the Government’s decision to implement Labor’s plan to establish a Do Not Call Register;
- (2) declares that the carve out for small and micro business represents a substantial deficiency in the bill and represents Government complacency on small business policy; and
- (3) calls on the Government to adopt Labor’s more comprehensive model”.

Document

Mr Fitzgibbon, by leave, presented the following document:

Do Not Call Register Bill 2006—Amendments (2) to be moved by Mr Fitzgibbon, 15 June 2006.

Debate continued.

It being 1.20 p.m., in accordance with the resolution agreed to earlier this day, the debate was interrupted and Mr Pearce (Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer) summed up the second reading debate.

Amendment negatived.

Question—That the bill be now read a second time—put and passed—bill read a second time.

In accordance with the resolution agreed to earlier this day, the question—That the remaining stages of the bill be agreed to—put and passed—bill read a third time.

9 DO NOT CALL REGISTER (CONSEQUENTIAL AMENDMENTS) BILL 2006

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the bill be now read a second time—

Question—put and passed—bill read a second time.

In accordance with the resolution agreed to earlier this day, the question—That the remaining stages of the bill be agreed to—put and passed—bill read a third time.

10 AUSTRALIAN TECHNICAL COLLEGES (FLEXIBILITY IN ACHIEVING AUSTRALIA’S SKILLS NEEDS) AMENDMENT BILL 2006

The order of the day having been read for the resumption of the debate on the question—That the bill be now read a second time—

Debate resumed by Ms Macklin (Deputy Leader of the Opposition) who moved, as an amendment—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words: “whilst not declining to give the bill a second reading, the House condemns the Government for:

- (1) creating a skills crisis through during their ten long years in office;
- (2) its continued failure to provide the necessary opportunities for Australians to get the training they need to get a decent job and meet the skills needs of the economy;
- (3) reducing the overall percentage of the Federal Budget spent on vocational education and training, and allowing this percentage of spending to further decline over the forward estimate period;

- (4) its incompetent handling of the Australian Technical Colleges initiative as evidenced by only four out of twenty five colleges being open for business, enrolling fewer than 300 students;
- (5) failing to be open and accountable about the operations of the Australian Technical Colleges, including details of extra student enrolments, funding levels for the individual colleges, course structures and programs;
- (6) denying local communities their promised Australian Technical College because of their ideological industrial relations requirements; and
- (7) failing to provide enough extra skills training so that Australia can meet the expected shortfall of 100,000 skilled workers by 2010”.

Debate continued.

It being 2 p.m., the debate was interrupted in accordance with standing order 97, and the resumption of the debate made an order of the day for a later hour this day.
