These provisions are for the purpose of localizing the Rolls, to enable them to be utilized for State elections. The powers as to polling places are given to the Minister instead of the Governor-General; and the power to make exchanges of names from one Roll to another are extended.   |     |

| ,          | 1                                       |                                | Where a Roll is divided according to polling places, the Regulations may prescribe the polling places at which electors residing in a certain area or locality may be enrolled; except as prescribed, the elector may choose his own polling place.  Where a Division is divided into subdivisions; an elector can only be enrolled on a Roll for the subdivision in which he lives (and see section 139, as proposed to be amended).  A new clause—30—is inserted to enable the Commonwealth and State Governments to make joint arrangements for the preparation alteration, and revision of the Rolls, consistently with the provisions of this Act. |     |
