

This week at a glance

28 to 30 September 2010

On the first day of each sitting week the Senate Daily Summary outlines the business scheduled for consideration in the Senate. On subsequent days, it provides a convenient summary of the previous day's proceedings in the Senate, with links to official Senate records.

Another document useful in tracking the business of the Senate is the Dynamic Red, which records proceedings in the Senate as they happen.

43rd Parliament

The 43rd Parliament will be opened on 28 September by the Deputy of the Governor-General in the Senate chamber (see pages 3 and 4 for an outline of the program).

As agreed to by both Houses on 23 June 2010 see [Journals of the Senate and Votes and Proceedings], a Welcome to Country ceremony will take place on the Forecourt of Parliament House prior to the opening.

After the opening of the Parliament, Senators Humphries and Lundy (representing the Australian Capital Territory) and Crossin and Scullion (representing the Northern Territory) will be sworn in.

In the afternoon, Her Excellency the Governor-General will address members and senators. The address-in-reply (the Senate's response to the Governor-General's speech) is programmed for debate in the Senate during the week.

Other business

Since the prorogation of the 42nd Parliament in July 2010, a large number of documents have been presented out of sitting. These will be tabled on 28 September. Click here for a complete list of these documents.

During the week the Senate is expected to establish its sitting pattern for the remainder of the year, and dates for supplementary budget estimates. The programs for estimates hearings will be available online. The Senate is also expected to appoint members to Senate committees and move to reappoint joint committees.
