Senator Stephens moved the following amendment in respect of the Migration Legislation Amendment (Contributory Parents Migration Scheme) Bill 2002:

At the end of the motion, add “but the Senate:

(a) notes that:

(i) the Howard Government slashed the number of visas available for parents seeking to migrate to Australia to join their families to 500 in 1998,

(ii) through this savage cut in visa numbers, the Howard Government has deliberately created a queue of over 20 000 parents seeking to migrate,

(iii) the deliberate creation of this queue has caused stress and suffering for the families involved,

- (iv) having created this crisis, the Howard Government's only answer is a new visa class which requires the payment of a $25 000 fee which will be beyond the means of many, and
 - (v) while Labor has historically supported sponsoring families making a contribution to the health and welfare costs associated with the migration of parents, the system needs to be equitable and not cause undue hardship; and
- (b) therefore calls on the Government immediately to introduce a fair system of parent visas, which will stop families in the current queue suffering additional stress and hardship and will meet Australia's needs into the future".

(a) notes:

- (i) the remarks by the Prime Minister (Mr Howard) in January 2003 that he believed Iraq's 'aspiration to develop a nuclear capacity' might be a sufficient reason for Australia to join in pre-emptive action, claiming 'there is already a mountain of evidence in the public domain',
 - (ii) that the Prime Minister has not provided any evidence that Iraq has or has access to nuclear weapons,
 - (iii) that former United Nations inspector, Mr Scott Ritter, has said that, by 1998, Iraq's nuclear infrastructure and facilities had been 100 per cent eliminated and that whilst scientists there would still have the knowledge to reconstruct this infrastructure, this would not be possible while weapons inspectors were there, and
 - (iv) that according to United States (US) nuclear weapons analyst, William Arkin, the US Strategic Command is compiling a list of Iraqi targets with planning focussed on the role for nuclear weapons in relation to underground facilities and to stop chemical or biological attack;
- (b) acknowledges the letter from the Prime Minister to the President of the Senate, dated 3 March 2003, in which he said, '...I see no prospect of nuclear weapons being used against Iraq' and, '...if I believed that nuclear weapons were going to be used, I would not allow Australian forces to be involved'; and

The Leader of the Australian Democrats (Senator Bartlett): To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

- (i) the United Nations (UN) General Assembly President, Mr Jan Karvan, has criticised the Australian Government's statement that the UN would become irrelevant if it failed to enforce its resolution on Iraq, and intends to meet with the Minister for Foreign Affairs (Mr Downer) in the week beginning 2 March 2003 and explain the position of the UN General Assembly, and
- (ii) the United States Administration had indicated that it considers another resolution on Iraq desirable but not necessary; and

- (b) opposes Australia joining or supporting a war against Iraq without, at a minimum, a UN resolution authorising force. (general business notice of motion no. 386)

Senator Brown: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate calls on the Commonwealth Government:

- (a) to demonstrate leadership in cooperation with the states in addressing the unmet need for disability services, recognising that the Australian Institute of Health and Welfare report, Unmet Need for Disability Services: Effectiveness of Funding and Remaining Shortfalls, July 2002, identified that 12 500 people still need accommodation and respite services, 8 200 places are needed for community access services and 5 400 people need employment services;
- (b) to publicly release the offers made by the states and the Commonwealth for the next 5 years in the negotiations to date, recognising the failure of the Commonwealth and state governments to reach agreement in the current round of negotiations on a new Commonwealth, state and territory Disability Services Agreement;
- (c) to immediately double its offer of new funding; and
- (d) in consultation with the states, to develop and implement a comprehensive plan beyond the current negotiations to address the unmet need for services over the next 5 years. (general business notice of motion no. 387)

Senator Ridgeway: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

- (a) notes the outcome of recent action against the International Olympic Committee for using the work of Indigenous artists during the Sydney Olympics without permission and, in particular, that the Olympic Museum Foundation has:

 - (ii) asked any persons who downloaded the artistic works in any digital form to delete it immediately from their computer hard drives, and
 - (iii) sincerely apologised for any harm or inconvenience their actions may have caused to the artists, regretting any cultural or other harm that may have been occasioned by their families and clans;
- (b) further notes that:
 - (i) Indigenous cultural expression is a fundamental part of Indigenous heritage and identity, and unauthorised use of Indigenous art and cultural expression can be inappropriate, derogatory, and culturally offensive,
 - (ii) individual Indigenous artists are custodians of the knowledge and wisdom their work incorporates and reflects and Indigenous moral rights are therefore collective rights that are inalienable from their community of origin, and
 - (iii) Indigenous artists are particularly vulnerable under Australian law, which offers no protection for the moral rights owned collectively by Indigenous communities; and

- (c) urges the Government to take immediate action to amend the Copyright Act 1968 to ensure the adequate recognition and protection of Indigenous collective moral rights, as proposed by the Australian Democrats in 2000. (general business notice of motion no. 388)
