Senator Sherry moved the following amendment:

> At the end of the motion, add “but the Senate is of the view that:
> (a) the Future Fund should only invest on a prudent commercial basis and > manage funds in a manner consistent with:
> (i) best practice portfolio management,
> (ii) achieving desired returns without undue risk to the fund as a whole,
> (iii) enhancing Australia’s reputation as a responsible and ethical > investor, and
> (iv) building productive capacity in the Australian community; and > (b) the income stream from the fund should be used for productive national > economic purpose rather than being set aside solely to offset the cost of > public sector superannuation as the Government intends”.

Debate ensued.

At 2 pm: Debate was interrupted while Senator Webber was speaking.

The following 2 petitions, lodged with the Clerk by the senators indicated, were received:

The President, from 15 petitioners, requesting that the Senate take action to restrict children’s exposure to Internet pornography.

Senator Ludwig, from 334 petitioners, requesting that the Senate take action to ensure that the proposed changes to industrial relations will not adversely affect Australian employees.

9 Notices
The Chair of the Select Committee on Mental Health (Senator Allison): To move on the next day of sitting—That the time for the presentation of the report of the Select Committee on Mental Health be extended to 28 April 2006. (general business notice of motion no. 382)

The Minister for the Arts and Sport (Senator Kemp) and Senator Lundy: To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) congratulates the Australian Olympic Team for achieving an outstanding result at the Winter Olympics in Torino;

(b) particularly congratulates medal winners Dale Begg-Smith and Alisa Camplin in helping the Australian team achieve its second best result at the Winter Olympics;

(c) congratulates the Olympic Winter Institute and the Australian Institute of Sport on their key contributions to the preparation of the Australian Winter Olympic team; and

(d) acknowledges the important contribution of the Australian Sports Commission to the preparation of the team.

The Leader of the Australian Democrats (Senator Allison): To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes that:

(i) on the Australian Broadcasting Corporation’s Insiders program on Sunday, 26 February 2006, the Treasurer (Mr Costello) said that he thinks ‘we can offer a tolerant Australia which respects the rights and liberties of all as long as we’ve got agreement on a few key points. One is a secular state’, and

(ii) on Monday, 27 February 2006 during question time, the Minister for Finance and Administration (Senator Minchin) said ‘It is a fact that in Australia, as a long part of the Western tradition, there is a separation of church and state’; and

(b) calls on the Government, if it is serious about a secular state, to take steps to:

(i) remove religious references from statutory oaths and pledges,

(ii) abolish official parliamentary prayers,

(iii) remove tax advantages that solely apply for religious purposes, and

(iv) consider other ways of achieving a true separation of church and state. (general business notice of motion no. 383)
Senator McLucas: To move on the next day of sitting—That the following matter be referred to the Community Affairs References Committee for inquiry and report by 17 August 2006:

An examination of the funding and operation of the Commonwealth-State/Territory Disability Agreement (CSTDA), including:

(a) an examination of the intent and effect of the three CSTDAs to date;

(b) the appropriateness or otherwise of current Commonwealth/state/territory joint funding arrangements, including an analysis of levels of unmet needs and, in particular, the unmet need for accommodation services and support;

(c) an examination of the ageing/disability interface with respect to health, aged care and other services, including the problems of jurisdictional overlap and inefficiency; and

(d) an examination of alternative funding, jurisdiction and administrative arrangements, including relevant examples from overseas.

The Minister for Communications, Information Technology and the Arts (Senator Coonan): To move on the next day of sitting—That the following bill be introduced: A Bill for an Act to amend the Broadcasting Services Act 1992, and for other purposes. Broadcasting Services Amendment (Subscription Television Drama and Community Broadcasting Licences) Bill 2006.

The Leader of the Australian Democrats (Senator Allison): To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes the recent reports of abuse of residents of aged care nursing homes; and

(b) calls on the Government and all state and territory governments to protect older Australians by:

(i) exploring the introduction of mandatory reporting of suspected abuse,

(ii) exploring the potential benefits of pre-employment police checks for aged care workers, and

(iii) supporting the Public Interest Disclosure (Protection of Whistleblowers) Bill 2002 [2004] which seeks to make reprisals against whistleblowers illegal and punishable by fine or imprisonment. (general business notice of motion no. 384)

Senator Stott Despoja and the Leader of the Australian Democrats (Senator Allison): To move on the next day of sitting—That the Senate—

(a) notes:

(i) the current speculation about Iran’s capabilities and intentions with regard to its possible development of nuclear weapons,

(ii) with deep concern, the threat of military action being considered against Iran, including the possible use of tactical nuclear weapons, and

(iii) successive resolutions in the United Nations General Assembly on negative security assurances and guarantees from the nuclear weapon states that nuclear weapons will never be used against non-nuclear armed states, and the importance of that principle in ensuring that non-nuclear weapon states have no motive to acquire nuclear weapons;
(b) urges the Government to pursue a resolution of the Iranian crisis based on the following principles:

(i) no use of any military intervention whatsoever by any party, for any reason,

(ii) a clear commitment by all nuclear-armed parties not to use nuclear weapons in this situation, and to recommit to the doctrine of no ‘first use’ of nuclear weapons,

(iii) a clear commitment by all parties to the global elimination of nuclear weapons, including reaffirmation of the Final Declaration of the 2000 Non-Proliferation Treaty Review conference, and relevant UN General Assembly resolutions, including the L28 resolution sponsored by Japan and Australia,

(iv) the implementation of the 1995 Non-Proliferation Treaty Resolution on a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the Middle East and the implementation of the annual consensus-adopted UN General Assembly resolutions on the ‘Establishment of a nuclear-weapon-free zone in the region of the Middle East’,

(v) a diplomatic path to the removal of tensions between the United States of America, Israel and Iran, involving compromise on all sides (except where the development or threat of nuclear weapons is concerned), recognising the legitimate security concerns of all parties including Israel and Iran, and refraining absolutely from inflammatory statements, and

(vi) encouragement of all states parties to the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty to remain within that framework and all non-states parties to join that regime; and

(c) conveys the text of this resolution to all UN Security Council missions and their foreign ministers or secretaries of state, and the Governments of Iran and Israel.

The Chair of the Community Affairs References Committee (Senator Moore): To move on the next day of sitting—That the time for the presentation of the following reports of the Community Affairs References Committee be extended to 22 June 2006:

(a) workplace exposure to toxic dust; and

(b) petrol sniffing in remote Aboriginal communities.

Senator Wong: To move 5 sitting days after today—That the Declaration of percentage of Commonwealth supported places to be provided by Table A providers for a course of study in medicine, made under paragraph 36-35(1)(b) of the Higher Education Support Act 2003, be disallowed.

2A Object

The object of this Act is to ensure that any offshore activities relating to petroleum exploration, recovery, storage and transport are carried out in a way that is consistent with the principles of ecologically sustainable development, especially in relation to the conservation of marine resources.

Clause 6, page 15 (line 20), after “safe”, insert “and in accordance with the principles of ecologically sustainable development”.

Clause 6, page 19 (after line 12), after the definition of petroleum, insert:

petroleum activity means operations carried out under a permit, lease, licence, authority or consent under the Act or the regulations and, in particular, any of the following operations:

(a) seismic or other surveys;
(b) drilling;
(c) construction and installation of a facility;
(d) operation of a facility;
(e) significant modification of a facility;
(f) decommissioning, dismantling or removing a facility;
(g) construction and installation of a pipeline;
(h) operation of a pipeline;
(i) significant modification of a pipeline;
(j) decommissioning, dismantling or removing a pipeline;
(k) storage, processing or transport of petroleum;

Clause 6, page 19 (after line 32), after the definition of pipeline provisions, insert:

principles of ecologically sustainable development means but is not limited to the following:

(a) decision-making processes should effectively integrate both long-term and short-term economic, environmental, social and equitable considerations;
(b) if there are threats of serious or irreversible environmental damage, lack of full scientific certainty should not be used as a reason for postponing measures to prevent environmental degradation;
(c) the principle of inter-generational equity—that the present generation should ensure that the health, diversity and productivity of the environment is maintained or enhanced for the benefit of future generations;
(d) the conservation of biological diversity and ecological integrity should be a fundamental consideration in decision-making;
(e) improved valuation, pricing and incentive mechanisms should be promoted.

243A Approved environment plan required for a petroleum activity

(1) A person must not carry out a petroleum activity unless there is an environment plan approved by the designated authority in force for the activity.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

(2) The contents of an environment plan must be in accordance with the regulations.

243B Activities must comply with approved environment plan

A person carrying out a petroleum activity for which there is an approved environment plan in force must not carry out the activity in a way that is contrary to the environment plan.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.

Page 251 (after line 7), after clause 243, insert:

243C Operations must not continue where new environmental risk identified

A person carrying out a petroleum activity for which there is an approved environment plan must not carry out the activity after the identification of:

(a) any significant new environmental effect or risk; or
(b) a significant increase in an existing environmental effect or risk arising from the activity;

unless the new or increased effect or risk is provided for in the environment plan.

Penalty: 100 penalty units.
