

In the 2006-07 CBF Funding Agreement, funding is allocated as follows:

Core funding

General community broadcasting	$1,280,640 (plus $128,064 GST)
Ethnic community radio broadcasting	$1,589,139 (plus $158,914)
Indigenous community radio broadcasting	$670,722 (plus $67,072. GST)
Radio for the print handicapped	$315,499 (plus $31,550 GST)
Total core funding	$3,856 000 (plus $385,600 GST)

Targeted funding

Ethnic community radio broadcasting	$1,154,761 (plus $115,476 GST)
CBOnline Project	$519,482 (plus $51,948 GST)
Community Radio Satellite	$57,757 (plus $5,776 GST)
Total Targeted funding	$1,732,000 (plus $173,200 GST)
National Training Fund	$600,000 (plus $60,000 GST)

Transmission support funding

Transmission support – infrastructure and operational costs.	$1,500,000 (plus $150,000 GST)
Transmission support – subsidised access to Broadcast Australia sites	$94,769 (plus $9,477 GST)
Total transmission support funding	$1,594,769 (plus $159,477 GST)
TOTAL FUNDING:	$7,782,769 (plus $778,277 (GST))

* Please note that the Government also provides over $13 million in direct grants to Indigenous broadcasting organisations through the Indigenous Broadcasting Program. For more information, please contact the Manager, Bill McGinnis, on 6271 1543 or email bill.mcginis@dcita.gov.au.

National Transmission Funding- Community Broadcasting in 2006-07
¹ Radio for the Print Handicapped	$418,067 (plus $41,807 GST)

¹ The National Transmission Network (NTN) Residual Funding Pool was created following the sale of NTN in 1999 to ensure that Government commitments were met in relation to transmission arrangements for national, community and remote commercial broadcasters (RCBs), and for Radio for the Print Handicapped (RPH).