Certain Solicitors in Family law courts do not care about children or families the encourage families to fight one another for their own greed, and also encourage parents to use their children for financial gain

These solicitor's will find out if you have done anything wrong and black mail you to keep it out of court.

They will bleed one side dry of money by going to court as much as they can, they get their client to lie and your solicitor does nothing about it, they have been able to get away with this because it has been a closed court.

There has been decision's made that court counsellor's reports not leave the solicitor's office

These people will get their clients to lie in welfare agencies knowing these will be used against you without been able cross-ex

These stupid people like you to believe they can get away with it by letting you think it is just your word against their's, that is also why there has been no investigation to make it look this way

I believe that if it was investigated 99% of all cases in which there is an order that Family reports not to leave solicitor's office that there will be a claim of a brought decision.

I would be happy to come to this enquiry and be cross-examined by anyone.
