Bill read a first time.

Mr Frydenberg moved—That the bill be now read a second time.

In accordance with the resolution agreed to, debate ensued.

Dr Chalmers moved, as an amendment—That all words after “That” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words:

“whilst not declining to give the bill a second reading, the House calls on the Government to:

(1) amend the bill to remove the measures that begin in the 2024–25 financial year, so that measures that provide relief now can be passed by the Parliament without delay; and

(2) support the economy by adopting the Opposition’s plan to provide income tax relief to every Australian worker from the 2019–20 financial year and bring forward infrastructure investment”.

Debate continuing—

Mr Bandt moved, as an amendment to the amendment proposed by Dr Chalmers—That all words after “whilst” be omitted with a view to substituting the following words:

“supporting greater assistance to low income working Australians, the House:

(1) urges the Government to introduce legislation that provides greater assistance to low income earners; and

(2) declines to give this bill a second reading until such assistance is legislated for low income earners”.

Debate continued.

(b) any variation to this arrangement to be made only by a motion to be moved by a Minister.

(c) the Government has already short-changed pensioners by refusing to properly adjust deeming rates for years despite five interest rate cuts;

       (b) some older Australians have been waiting more than two years for their approved package;

6 TASMANIAN HOUSING CRISIS
Ms Collins, pursuant to notice, moved—That this House:

(d) sadly, behind these statistics, Tasmanians are hurting;
(e) the new Federal Assistant Minister for Community Housing, Homelessness and Community Services wants to put a ‘positive spin’ on the housing crisis, which is disgraceful and shows an arrogant contempt for ordinary Tasmanians; and
(f) these unacceptable comments illustrate the failure and incompetence of the Liberals in Tasmania;
(2) calls on the Federal Government to outline a plan to address this crisis—if there is a deal with Senator Lambie, the Government should release the details; and
(3) recognises that:
(a) this continuing record of neglect is yet another example of the State and Federal Liberals failing to stand up for Tasmania; and

   (b) the business community, unions and the not-for-profit sector are demanding reform and real funding—they know that a strong and growing economy depends on a skilled Australian workforce; and

(9) understands that most, if not all, of the world’s major religions have, at various times including the present, suffered persecution in some form; and holds that the importance of freedom of religion is both an individual and a collective right, protected under international and domestic law, whereby all people are free to adopt and hold a belief, as well as manifest that belief in worship, observance, practice or teaching.

Questions without notice continuing—

Suspension of standing orders moved

Mr Albanese (Leader of the Opposition) moved—that so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent the Member for Grayndler from moving the following motion immediately—that the House:

(1) notes:

(a) the Prime Minister has refused to sack the Minister for Energy and Emissions Reduction despite the Minister admitting on radio he was acting for private interests instead of the public interest and despite the Minister’s clear and repeated breaches of the Prime Minister’s Ministerial Standards;

(b) the Prime Minister has prevented the Member for Chisholm from providing a full statement in her own words to this House where words carry consequences and instead relied on a statement prepared by the Prime Minister’s office issued outside the House;

(c) on Friday, the Prime Minister denied using the phrase “Shanghai Sam” despite using it at least 17 times, including twice in the House; and

(d) the Prime Minister’s attempt to cover up his untruth on Friday with another untruth is just the latest in a long line of misdirection and obfuscation from this Prime Minister; and

(2) therefore, condemns this Prime Minister for repeatedly abandoning any sense of integrity whenever it is politically expedient for him to do so.

And so it was resolved in the affirmative.

On the motion of Mr Dutton, amendment (2) was agreed to, after debate.

Mr Dutton presented reasons, which were circulated, and are as follows:

Reasons of the House of Representatives for disagreeing to Senate amendment No. 1

Crimes Legislation Amendment (Police Powers at Airports) Bill 2019

AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE SENATE

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DISAGREEMENT WITH PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Amendment (1) provides that the provisions of the bill – which are intended to keep the Australian public safe – would sunset after four years. This amendment is not supported for numerous reasons including:

- the provisions in the bill are intended to improve the safety and security of Australia’s major airports and aviation network, on an ongoing basis – not just for a prescribed period.
airports are and will continue to be high profile targets for terrorists. Over recent years, terrorist attacks on airports in Brussels, Istanbul and Paris, to cite just a few examples, highlight how real and unique the threat of terrorism is to the airport environment. Australia is not immune to the threats or impacts of terrorism, and as such the provisions in this bill are necessary to ensure that Australia’s aviation network remains among the safest in the world.

airports are also a transit point for transnational, serious and organised crime groups seeking to traffic people, illicit drugs and weapons within Australia and abroad. Around 70% of Australia’s serious and organised crime threats are based offshore or have strong offshore links. Protecting Australians and safeguarding our aviation network against malicious criminal activities is of paramount importance now, and will remain of paramount importance into the future.

the measures in this bill address complexity and inconsistencies in laws across the States and Territories and the Commonwealth. Currently, police are required to rely on a patchwork of Commonwealth, State and Territory laws to address the criminal, safety and security threats at major Australian airports. The bill will give police consistent and appropriate powers to respond to these threats.

the threats to Australia’s aviation network are not static and are not expected to disappear or diminish in four years. Accordingly, the House is resolved to ensure that police powers at airports are appropriate and responsive to the evolving threat environment.

the bill has been considered in detail by the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Intelligence and Security, as well as the Parliamentary Joint Committee on Human Rights and the Senate Standing Committee for the Scrutiny of Bills. The views and recommendations of these committees have been incorporated into the bill. No recommendations were made by these committees that the bill should sunset after four years from the day of commencement.

Accordingly, the House of Representatives does not accept this amendment.

On the motion of Mr Dutton, the reasons were adopted.

15 SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS MOVED
Mr Bandt moved—That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent the Member for Melbourne from moving the following motion immediately—That the House:

(1) declares an environment and climate emergency;

(2) recognises that:

(a) the recent report of the Inter-governmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), Special Report: Global Warming of 1.5 °C, indicates that we are facing a climate emergency, and as a result, meaningful action on climate change is urgent, at home and internationally;

(b) this IPCC report has found that the world is not on track to limit global warming to less than 1.5 degrees Celsius;

(c) at a national level, England, France, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, and Canada have all declared a climate emergency; and

(d) unmitigated climate change will lead to a steep increase in the severity and frequency of extreme weather events that will devastate large parts of Australia and radically impact food production, water availability, public health, infrastructure, the community and the financial system; and

(3) notes that the Government has acknowledged urgent action is required to address climate change and calls on the Government to take urgent action consistent with avoiding catastrophic climate change, the goals of the Paris Agreement and internationally accepted science.

Debate ensued.

   (a) bringing forward infrastructure investments, particularly in regional areas;
   (b) bringing forward part of its stage 2 income tax package to 2019-20 to provide relief for middle income earners, as this would have provided up to $1,350 a year to those earning above $90,000 three years earlier than currently planned;

Suspension of standing orders moved

Mr Albanese (Leader of the Opposition) moved—That so much of the standing orders be suspended as would prevent the Member for Grayndler from moving the following motion immediately—That the House:

(1) notes that the:
   (a) International Monetary Fund has slashed its growth forecast for the Australian economy for this year by almost 20 per cent;
   (b) downgrade to Australia’s growth forecast by the International Monetary Fund is four times worse than the downgrade to advanced economies;
   (c) Government has consistently ignored growing evidence that the Australian economy is floundering, including:
      (i) the slowest economic growth in a decade;
      (ii) the worst wages growth on record;
      (iii) a record 1.9 million Australians being unemployed or underemployed;
      (iv) a decline in GDP per capita last year, with flat growth in the last quarter;
      (v) record levels of household debt;
      (vi) consumer confidence at a four-year low;
      (vii) business confidence well below average; and
      (viii) sluggish productivity growth;
   (d) International Monetary Fund has called on countries, including Australia, to provide fiscal support, saying “Monetary policy cannot be the only game in town and should be coupled with fiscal support where fiscal space is available”; and
   (e) Government has no plan to address Australia’s floundering economy and continues to ignore calls from the Reserve Bank of Australia and the International Monetary Fund to provide fiscal support, including by investing in infrastructure; and therefore, calls on the Prime Minister to be straight with the Australian people about Australia’s floundering economy and develop a plan to stimulate economic growth, including by bringing forward infrastructure investment across the nation including in regional and rural Australia.
