QUALIFICATION CHECKLIST

Relating to your eligibility under Section 44 of the Australian Constitution

Candidate's name

Peter Khalil

Please fill out this checklist.

Be aware that completing this checklist does not guarantee that you are eligible to be elected under section 44 of the Australian Constitution or under the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918.

If you have any doubts about your eligibility, you should seek independent legal advice.

If you provide information in this checklist that you know is false or misleading, you may commit an offence against the Criminal Code with a maximum penalty of imprisonment for 12 months, $12,600 or both.

You must answer every question in the checklist that has check boxes by marking one, and only one, of the boxes provided. Your nomination will be rejected if you do not mark any of the boxes, or if you mark more than one of the boxes, provided for any of these questions.

Please provide supporting documentation as appropriate. You may provide additional documents if you are unable to fit all your responses in this checklist.

Note: If you answer 'yes' in question 10 then you must provide at least one document in response to question 10a.

You should not include information in this checklist, or in any additional documents you provide, that is inappropriate in any way. If you do, the information may be redacted by the Electoral Commissioner and not published on the Australian Electoral Commission's website.

You may choose to redact information (for example, your own or another person's personal information) from additional documents before providing them. Redactions must be in accordance with any directions of the Electoral Commissioner.

The candidate statement and declaration that you have made elsewhere in this nomination also relate to your eligibility to be elected. In that statement and declaration:

- (a) you have declared that you are qualified under the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth to be elected as a Senator or member of the House of Representatives; and
- (b) you have stated that you are an Australian citizen.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) are mandatory

1. Do you know the place of birth of each of your parents and grandparents (whether biological or adoptive)?*

YES
 NO

1a. Please provide any relevant details (for example, why you do not know the place of birth of a parent or grandparent):

Other relevant details relating to your knowledge of your parents' and grandparents' places of birth

[Please provide particulars of, or documents related to, any details provided in response to question 1a. These will be published with this checklist on the Australian Electoral Commission's website.]

Country of foreign citizenship

Manner in which foreign citizenship was lost (if applicable)

Date of losing foreign citizenship (if applicable) / /

* [If you contend that you have renounced or lost your foreign citizenship, you must provide at least one document that you are satisfied supports your contention. (The document may be an official document, or if you have no official document, a statutory declaration.) This will be published with this checklist on the Australian Electoral Commission's website.]

10b. Please provide any other relevant details (for example, how you lost your foreign citizenship, or why the response to question 10 is unknown):

Other relevant details relating to the loss of your foreign citizenship

My parents became naturalised Australian citizens in 1971 and 1972. Egyptians who obtain foreign citizenship automatically forfeit their Egyptian citizenship unless they apply to retain their Egyptian citizenship within a year of the date of acquiring foreign citizenship. My parents never made such an application and therefore forfeited their Egyptian citizenship.

Accordingly, my parents were no longer Egyptian citizens at the time of my birth in 1973 and were incapable of transmitting Egyptian citizenship by descent to me.

[In addition to the requirement to provide at least one document mentioned under question 10a, please provide particulars of, or documents related to, any other details provided in response to questions 10a and 10b. Mr Peter Khalil MP
Member for Wills, Victoria

Dear Mr Khalil,

With reference to your contact with the Embassy in April 2016 and your email dated 28 of July 2017, concerning your eligibility of Federal candidates, MPs and Senators under S.44 of the Australian constitution.

We would like to re-confirm to you that according to our records your Egyptian parents became naturalised Australian citizens in 1971 and 1972. Under Egyptian Law Egyptians who obtain foreign citizenship relinquish their Egyptian citizenship unless within a year of the date of acquiring foreign citizenship they apply with appropriate Egyptian officials to retain their Egyptian citizenship and hold dual citizenship as your parents did not do so and thereby relinquished their Egyptian citizenship.

Our records show as well that you have never applied for or received Egyptian Citizenship by descent under Egyptian Law.
