STATUTORY DECLARATION

I, Sam Dastyari, of [REDACTED], in the state of New South Wales, General Secretary of the Australian Labor Party (NSW Branch), hereby make the following declaration according to the Statutory Declarations Act 1959:

1. I was born on 28 July 1983 in Sari, Iran. My name at birth was Sahand Dastyari.
2. My family relocated to Australia in 1988 when I was five years old and I have resided in Australia since that time.
3. I became an Australian citizen on 24 June 1996 when I was 12 years old. I formally changed my given name from Sahand to Sam on 8 August 2000 by Deed Poll with the NSW Registry of Births, Deaths and Marriages.
4. I have no intention of residing in Iran in the future nor do I have any affinity or allegiance to the Islamic Republic of Iran whatsoever. I will not obey any order that the Government of Iran may issue in regards to its citizens including any orders in relation to military service. I also have no intention of accessing any privileges or entitlements that may be available to Iranian citizens.
5. I consider Australia to be my home and where my affinity and allegiance lies.
6. I became interested in politics at a young age and officially joined the Australian Labor Party (ALP) in 1999.
7. I have been employed by the ALP for the past seven years and have held the position of General Secretary of the Australian Labor Party (NSW Branch) since August 2010.
8. When I decided to pursue my political career in the Australian Federal Parliament, I requested the advice of Counsel on behalf of the ALP (NSW Branch). The ALP (NSW Branch) instructed Mr Gerald Ng, of Selborne Chambers in Sydney to provide advice in relation to the procedures the ALP may take to ensure candidates for a Federal election would not be disqualified from sitting in the House of Representatives or the Senate. Mr Ng's advice was to the effect that a person who holds dual Australian and foreign citizenship should take reasonable steps to renounce their foreign citizenship.
9. As I had no affinity and allegiance to Iran I decided to renounce my Iranian Citizenship.
10. Mr Ng emailed me a copy of his Memorandum of Advice on 11 March 2013 and referred me to Ron Kessels of Fragomen to obtain advice regarding the process to renounce my Iranian citizenship.

S.D

11. I contacted Mr Kessels on 12 March 2013 to explain my situation and seek his advice. I also forwarded him a copy of Mr Ng's Memorandum of Advice on 13 March 2013.
12. Mr Kessels emailed his professional services agreement to me on 21 March 2013 along with an outline of the steps that would need to be taken to formally renounce my Iranian citizenship and a list of the documentation I would need to gather.
13. I engaged Fragomen to assist me in this respect on 27 March 2013 and I immediately started to gather the requested documents. I also asked Mr Kessels to also arrange translation of the relevant application forms as I cannot read or write Farsi. This would also assist Mr Kessels in understanding my answers as I understand he also does not understand Farsi.
14. On 4 April 2013 Mr Kessels sent me an email to let me know that he expected the English translations of the application forms that day or the next and would send them on to me. I replied via email to advise that I had also located my Iranian ID card and Birth Certificate.
15. On 5 April 2013 Mr Kessels emailed me the relevant translated application forms for renouncing my citizenship as well as for applying for an exemption from Iranian military service. He advised that it was also a requirement that my wife complete these forms as well. The relevant forms were:
  - a. Application to Renounce Iranian Nationality
  - b. Questionnaire to Renounce Nationality
  - c. Table of Exits and Entries to the country
  - d. Recognisance Letter
  - e. Form for Purchase of Military Service Exemption.
16. Mr Kessels also advised that he would need my original documents to arrange certification and translation.
17. On 15 April 2013 I delivered the following documents to Mr Kessels office:
  - a. Iranian Birth Certificate
  - b. Iranian ID Card
  - c. Iranian Passport
  - d. Australian Passport
  - e. Document for Travel to Australia
  - f. Change of Name Certificate
  - g. Australian Citizenship Certificate
18. On 23 April 2013 I emailed Mr Kessels the completed English versions of the Recognisance Letter, Application to Renounce Citizenship and Questionnaire for Applicants for myself only.
19. On 29 April 2013 Mr Kessels and I spoke over the telephone. We agreed that one of my family members would translate my completed application forms back to Farsi so we could lodge the application with the versions in both English and Farsi.

20. On 30 April 2013 Mr Kessels emailed a confirmation of our conversation and listed the outstanding documents I still needed to gather.
21. I responded to Mr Kessels email on 1 May 2013 confirming I would work on gathering the outstanding information.
22. On 14 May 2013 I emailed Mr Kessels to advise that I had gathered all of the documents. I attended his office on 27 May 2013 to sign the application forms in his presence and provide all of the documents I had gathered so far for the application to be prepared. There was some further documentation I needed to gather and prepare regarding right to ownership of property in Iran.
23. I again attended Mr Kessels office on 3 June 2013 to sign a Declaration regarding my rights to property in Iran in front of Jane Goddard who is a Notary Public.
24. On 6 June 2013 Mr Kessels emailed me a copy of the draft renunciation letter addressed to the Islamic Republic of Iran which would accompany my application for my consideration and comment. Following our conversations Mr Kessels emailed me a copy of the finalised version of the renunciation letter for my consideration on 23 June 2013.
25. My application was then completed with all application forms and supporting documentation. I attended Mr Kessels office on 18 July 2013 to sign the renunciation letter that accompanied my application. I then arranged to courier the application via DHL to my lawyer in Iran, Mr Tavakol Abdollahi Avanaki from the Fragomen office. The package was couriered to Mr Avanaki on 19 July 2013 after I signed the DHL Sanctions Warranty and Indemnity Letter.
26. I understand that the package was delivered to Mr Avanaki on 23 July 2013. Annexed hereto is a copy of the DHL tracking summary from their website.
27. On 7 August 2013 I received a letter from Mr Avanki confirming that the documents that had been sent to him had been submitted to the Refugee and Citizenship Office of the Iranian Foreign Affairs Ministry but that he had not yet received a response. He confirmed that he would continue to follow up on my behalf.
28. On the basis of the above steps, I believe that I have taken all reasonable steps to renounce my citizenship of Iran as required by the High Court in Sykes v Cleary (1992).
29. In addition to my extensive efforts to complete the Iranian Citizenship renunciation process, I hereby, with immediate effect, formally renounce my Iranian citizenship, including all rights and privileges that may be possessed as a citizen of Iran.

SD

I understand that a person who intentionally makes a false statement in statutory declaration is guilty of an offence under section 11 of the Statutory Declarations Act 1959 and I believe that the statements in this declaration are true in every particular.
