Parliamentary scrutiny of delegated legislation—Corrigendum

Correction to Chapter 2, page 19

After paragraph 2.19, insert:

2.20 The standing orders also provide that the Chair may appoint a member of the committee to be Deputy Chair.\textsuperscript{17} By convention, the Deputy Chair has been a non-government senator\textsuperscript{18} (although this is not required by the standing orders).

After footnote 16, insert:

\textsuperscript{17} The Senate, \textit{Standing Orders and other orders of the Senate}, August 2018, SO 23(7).

\textsuperscript{18} Harry Evans and Rosemary Laing, eds., \textit{Odgers' Australian Senate Practice, 14th edition}, Department of the Senate, 2016, p. 435.

Senator John Williams
Chair