Senator Cash asked:

It is Government funding that is supporting the development of policies and resources that, under the program, can be used by workplaces of all shapes and sizes to encourage awareness:

- What is the status of these policies?
- Who is developing them?
- What will the content of the policies entail?
- Will they be one size fits all policies or will they differentiate between shape and size of organisation?

Answer:

Under the funding agreement, this work is being done by the White Ribbon Foundation, in consultation with the expert reference group which will be established to provide guidance and additional expertise to the project.
