Senator Siewert asked:

Has the Amata youth action plan been finalised? If not, when will it be finalised and when will it be released?

Has work been started on the Amata youth action plan?

Answer:

The Amata Youth Action Plan is expected to be completed in 2012. The Amata Youth Action Plan Workshop will involve youth related program services from across the Australian and South Australian Governments, non-government organisations involved in delivering youth related services to the region, senior community members and young people from Amata.
