Outcome Number: 6

Question No: 202

Topic: Gender Appointments to Government Departments

Hansard Page: Written

Senator Cash asked:

How many positions have been advertised for gender experts, gender equality experts or people with gender-specific knowledge or expertise across Government Departments over the past year?

Across which departments were these jobs advertised?

What APS or SES level or band were these jobs, and how many were advertised?

How many of these jobs have been filled?

Are these gender equality expert positions new positions, or have they always existed?

What input did the Office for Women have into the development of the job descriptions?

Answer: This data is not collected.
